

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 13. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 4.

Venice, October 14.

THE two Gallies belonging to the Republick, which carry'd the Cardinal d'Etrees to Rimini, (who went to wait on the King of Spain at Milan) are return'd hither, having been in a Storm on the 6th and 7th, which forc'd them to run into the Port of Chioggia: From whence they sail'd on the 9th and arriv'd at the Lido, with one of the Barks that accompany'd them, the other having been separated by the bad Weather, and has not been heard of since; which makes us fear she is lost. Cardinal d'Etrees made very rich Presents to the Officers which were order'd by the Republick to attend him: But Signior Badoero, Captain of the Gulf, refus'd a Diamond which the Cardinal offer'd him, not thinking fit to accept of it without leave from the Republick. Signior Marino Zani, the new General of Dalmatia, is gone in the same two Gallies to his Government, being accompany'd by several Ships laden with Merchandize, and Passengers to several Parts of the Grand Signior's Dominions. The Chevalier Fourbin was oblig'd by the same Storm to cut his Cables, and make out to Sea; and 'tis not known whither he is gone; his Gallies shelter'd themselves in the Port of Lido, whence they are since put to Sea.

Warsaw, October 8. The King of Poland continues still in this City, where he will hold a Senatus Consultum on the 15th to regulate the Winter-Quarters of the Army of the Crown. 'Tis given out for certain, That he will quickly leave this Place, and order the Saxon Troops to take Quarters in the Regal Prussia, especially in the Territories of the Cities of Dantzick, Elbing and Thorn; but 'tis said they are resolv'd to maintain their Privileges; and that the Town of Thorn has broken down their Bridge over the Vistula. Some days ago the Post-Master of Petrikow in the Palatinate of Siradia, brought the News that General Brandt had surpriz'd and defeated a Party of 300

Sweeds near that place, and had carry'd off 20000 Crowns which they had collected for Contributions. This News has been confirm'd; and 'tis further reported, That the Great Chamberlain of the Crown has routed a Party of 2 or 300 Sweeds; some of which retir'd into a House where they defended themselves very bravely, but the Poles setting Fire to it, they all perish'd in it. 'Tis fear'd these Hostilities will alter the King of Sweden's Disposition to Peace, and render the Embassy of the Republick to him fruitless. Part of his Army commanded by General Horn is advanc'd to Opatow near Sendomir; and he himself is following with his Infantry, Baggage and Artillery in Boats, down the Vistula. There is a Report, That the King of Poland has resolv'd to issue out the Universalia to all the Palatinats, to exhort them to enter into an Association against the Sweeds; but 'tis thought this Resolution will not be very pleasing to the Palatinats who assembled at Sendomir, because 'tis contrary to the Measures taken by them, to accommodate Matters in an amicable manner and to forbear proceeding with Violence. Prince Dolhoruki Ambassador of Muscovy, (who fled into Silesia out of the last Battle in which the Saxons were defeated, leaving his Baggage to the Sweeds) return'd into this City on the 6th. Yesterday he had Audience of the King of Poland, and immediately after dispatch'd an Express to the Czar of Muscovy, who is on the Frontiers of Livonia near Pleskow. Letters from Russia confirm that the Cossacks in Volhinia have revolted, and that those Cossacks who are Subject to the Czar have joyn'd them; upon which the Nobility of the Palatinats of Volhinia and Podolia had mounted on Horseback and were march'd to reduce them.
